To whom it may concern,

Subject: XP13x Series Discontinuation

Torex Semiconductor Ltd. planned EOL of the XP13x series in 2008. For a remarkable decrease in demand, we would like to move on to discontinuation procedures for the series. Please refer to a schedule stated as below.

- | | |
|--|----------------|
| 1. Product: | XP13x series |
| 2. Package: | SOP-8 |
| 3. Last date of issuing purchase orders: | March 30, 2012 |
| 3. Last date of shipment: | June 29, 2012 |

For more information or any inquiries, please ask Torex sales person or representatives.
We appreciate very much for your understanding and cooperation.

Best regards,

Koji Shibamiya
